Supreme Court Saves Costello From Deportation

WASHINGTON (AP) - The Supreme Court overturned today an order for deportation of Frank Costello, 71-year-old New York gambler. Justice Stewart delivered the

6-2 decision. Justice White dissented with an opinion in which Justice Clark joined. Justice Harlan took no part. Costello was born in Italy and brought to this country when four years old. He was naturalized in 1925 but the naturalization was canceled in 1959 on the ground he obtained citizenship by fraud.

In 1954 Costello was convicted of evading income taxes in 1948 and 1949. He served two years in prison. In 1961 he was ordered deported as an alien convicted of two crimes involving moral turpitude. The U. S. Cricuit Court in New York ruled the two tax convictions were such crimes and upheld the deportation order.

The contest was played before the largest crowd Delaware of the year in the physical educa-tion building as an estimated 2,000 fans witnessed the affair.

Lafayette held a slim 46-45 lead with 4:29 remaining in the game. At 3:02, sophomore Chris Sirms was tangling under the boards for a rebound when the official called a personal foul giving Sirms a chance at the free throw line. In the meantime, through the quick building excitement over the close battle, a technical foul was called against the Leopard bench. Sirms converted both of his shots and George Strouse came to the line to land his toss and Gettys-burg took the lead for good at

ALL THINGS ARE POSSIBLE TO HIM THAT BELIEVETH

During His short public life, Christ performed many miracles: through Him the blind saw, the lame walked, the dead rose.

In one instance, a man brought to Him his son, who was possessed of an evil spirit so that he frothed at the mouth, grinded his teeth and rolled on the ground in convulsions.

"If Thou canst do anything, have compassion on us and help us," the father pleaded.

In curing the boy, Christ gave the father and all mankind a lesson in faith: "If thou canst believe, all things are possible to him that believeth." (Mark IX:23)

Your Manners At Market The POWER of FAITH By WOODI ISHMAEL

The hardy adventurers who gave England her foothold in America at Jamestown in 1607 were men of a faith that led them across the ocean to an unknown, hostile land. They sustained their faith through prayer at every opportunity; prayers of Thanksgiving, prayers for guidance and strength.

At James Fort, the first settlement, there were always guards on watch for an Indian attack. At the changing of the guard for each watch, a prayer was said. It has been handed down to us just as the captain of the guards repeated it each time:
"We know, O Lord, we have the devil and all the gates of Hell against us, but if Thou O Lord be on our side, we care not who be against us. And seeing by Thy motion and work in our hearts, we have left our warm nest at home, and put our lives into Thy hands, principally to honor Thy name and advance the Kingdom of Thy Son, Lord give us leave to commit our lives into Thy hands, Amen."

The POWER of FAITH By WOODI ISHMAEL

Every week the Rev. Allen Clark's ministry reaches 20,000 people, half way around the world. His "ministry by mail," known as Home Prayers, is broadcast to Eskimos by a missionary at Frobisher Bay, Canada, and read by G. I. s in Korea. It is used in hospitals and churches for their patients and shut-ins.
It began in 1927 when Mr. Clark had a circuit of three parishes near Hanover, N. H.

The bitter New England winters made it impossible for him to hold services in a small chapel back in the hills. He hit upon an idea of sending the three families of the chapel a mimeographed home service each week during the worst winter months. The idea caught on and others wanted it, and by 1930 it was being printed instead of mimeographed.

By 1958 its circulation had grown so large that Mr. Clark either had to resign from parish work or give up Home Prayers. He chose to stay with Home Prayers, and it was incorporated as a non-profit enterprise with an interdenominational board of trustees. Home Prayers consists of an opening prayer, a Bible reading, a 450-word sermon and a closing prayer. There is no charge. Twice a year we 'pass the plate' by mail," says Mr. Clark. "If God wants Home Prayers to continue, He will provide the money."
